

Carbon correlation is real, but adds no robust scheduling value: the mean field dominates

A. Spatial value does not track correlation

B. The covariance is masked, not worthless remove the mean field, and joint covariance pays off

